Sharing My HEALTH INFO

Can I view a family member's health record in My HEALTH INFO?

Yes you can. This is called Proxy access and allows a parent (or guardian) to log into their personal My HEALTH INFO account, and then connect to information regarding their family member, who has shared access with them if they are 12 years or older. From within your portal account, you can send an invite to whomever you want via the Shared Access button under the PROFILE and you can determine what information you want to share with them. Or complete a My HEALTH INFO Proxy Consent Form and return it to the Health Information Management Department to request access to this convenient service.

Can I have access to my minor child's health record in My HEALTH INFO?

Yes, you may have access to your minor child, birth to 12th birthday. You may print the authorization form from the website (Forms link) or pick up a form from registration and return it to the Health Information Management Department to request access to this convenient service. For minor children between 12-17, they must create their own portal account and share access with you.

Can I share access to My HEALTH INFO record with someone?

Yes, as long as you are 12 or older and legally competent. From within your portal account, you can send an invite to whomever you want via the Shared Access button under the PROFILE. Or give another person access to your My HEALTH INFO record, by completing a My HEALTH INFO Proxy Access Form at your next visit from the Health Information Management Department.

Can my spouse and I share one My HEALTH INFO account?

Due to the sensitive nature of medical information, each adult must have an individual My HEALTH INFO account.

Can my health records from MY HEALTH INFO be shared with another application?

Yes. There are third-party health applications that have met the rigorous requirements to connect with My Health Info. If you have a preferred application that you want to connect with your My Health Info account, you will need to complete an App Request Form that can be obtained from our registration staff, in order for Newman Regional Health to confirm the application of your choice does meet the requirements to connect with My Health Info. Once approved, open the third-party app and look for the section that allows you to connect with healthcare providers or add health data. When asked for the provider name, enter Newman Regional Health. Once you confirm the provider name, your app should connect to My Health Info and you can sign in using your My Health Info credentials to authorize the connection. If you have problems, please contact the third-party application directly for assistance.

Note: Newman Regional Health does not endorse any third-party applications and is not requiring you to make health information available to any third-party. By allowing access, you are indicating that you are directing Newman Regional Health to make your My Health Info information available to the third-party (the app, its developers and its associates). Please note that third-parties might not be obligated to protect your health information under the same privacy regulations as your healthcare providers, and some apps might use data for advertising or other secondary purposes. Before granting access, review this app's terms and conditions to be sure that you are comfortable with the app's use of your data.
